

For Immediate Release

February 28, 2008

Contact: Mark Ruybalid

719-226-2828

Gulf Coast Western Tees Up As Supporter of 2008 U.S. Senior Open Championship

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO– Gulf Coast Western (GCW) announced today that it has signed on as a hospitality supporter of the 2008 U.S. Senior Open Championship to be held in Colorado Springs this summer.

Held at the historic Broadmoor Golf Club, the seven-day event runs from July 28–August 3 and will feature four days of championship golf. The Senior Open will be contested on the East Course designed by Donald Ross and Robert Trent Jones, Jr. and will be the 6th USGA Championship at The Broadmoor. The first was the 1959 U.S. Amateur won by Jack Nicklaus. The last was the 1995 U.S. Women’s Open, won by Annika Sorenstam.

“Gulf Coast Western is excited about the opportunity to support an event of this caliber,” says Nick Troyer Senior Vice President and Director of Marketing. “The employees of GCW look forward to representing our company while enjoying a week of phenomenal golf.”

The biggest names in golf are signed on for this summer’s championship. Among them are Hale Irwin (Honorary Chairman), Brad Bryant (Defending Champion), Ben Crenshaw, Craig Stadler, Tom Kite, Jay Haas, Mark O’Meara and many more.

Gulf Coast Western was founded in 1970 for the purpose of exploring, developing and acquiring domestic oil and gas reserves, primarily in the Gulf Coast region of the United States.

Tickets to the Championship are available at www.2008ussenioropen.com

###